PLAN TO CELEBRATE WITH US ON OCTOBER 22!

The theme for Birthright's festive gala and fundraiser, slated for October 22 at the Fredericksburg Country Club, is "Celebrating Forty Years of Loving Them Both." Dedicated volunteers and faithful benefactors, along with friends both old and new, are invited to renew acquaintances and reminisce about Fredericksburg's first pro-life service organization that was born in 1976.

Irene Hagerty, who was then president of the Council of Catholic Women (CCW) at St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception Church in Fredericksburg, along with some like-minded members, was inspired to inaugurate a local chapter of Birthright, an international, interdenominational group founded in Toronto in 1968 by the late Louise Summerhill to help women facing an unplanned pregnancy.

Irene became the first director and held that position for an unbelievable twenty-five years! Donna Hart succeeded Irene and remains active today as a client advocate and president of the board of directors. Maria Cackett and Mary Thorsted became co-directors and were later succeeded by Carolyn Brodeur and Amanda Pulley. Barbara Carr and Betsy Flanagan later took over the reins as co-directors and both remain active today performing a variety of duties.

Currently, Lily Alarcon leads the organization. Like all her predecessors in the director position, Lily does this work out of the goodness of her heart; she is a smart, dynamic, hardworking leader whose talents would be richly rewarded in the workplace.

Our all-volunteer office is located at 2006 Lafayette Boulevard in the Paul's Bakery complex where we have welcomed an average of 1,000 women each year from all localities in Planning District 16. Our client advocates administer over 800 pregnancy tests yearly. Mother and child -loving them both - is always the focus as we fulfill the mission statement of our international organization: "It is the right of every pregnant woman to give birth and the right of every child to be born."

To help us celebrate that theme and to raise some much needed funds to continue our work, gala organizers have lined up some impressive speakers as well as some donations of outstanding original art from both local professional artists along with some student art which will be available for purchase.

Serrin Foster, president of Feminists for Life (FFL) in Alexandria, will be the main presenter. Her landmark speech,

"The Feminist Case Against Abortion," has been recognized as one of the "great speeches in history" in the anthology called Women's Rights. The leader of FFL since 1994, Foster has successfully advocated for women and children on countless university campuses, on Capitol Hill, and in major media outlets. She served on the National Taskforce Against Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence which worked to pass the Violence Against Women Act. Serrin's mom was an early Birthright volunteer. Attendees will learn how Serrin's mother influenced her work for FFL today.

Christopher Rooney of Fredericksburg will keep the festivities rolling along as master of ceremonies for the event.

During the 6:00 PM pre-dinner reception, Linda Long, Director of Music Ministries for St. Matthew Church, and two colleagues will perform harp music. Guests can view the donated artworks and still get in on the raffle that has been underway since the summer. The winning tickets will be drawn that night, but one does not need to be present to win. Local artists who donated pieces include Bill Richardson, Fr. Don Rooney, Vicky Shoupe, Peggy Wickham, Don Young, Bill O'Connor, and Patricia Murray.

In addition to the donated pieces from well-known local artists, student artists from St. John Paul the Great High School in Dumfries will be displaying works featuring a "Mother and Child" theme. Under the direction of art teacher Bill O'Connor, Department Chair of Fine Arts, these young people, all members of the National Art Honor Society, will get the opportunity to use their artistic talent in the service of others. Their works will be available for purchase via a silent auction.

There is no charge to attend the event, but reservations are necessary. The event is expected to reach capacity quickly. If you or someone you know would like to receive an invitation, please call the office at 540-898-8558 or email us at birthrightfred@gmail.com.

We are actively soliciting sponsors and table hosts to help underwrite the costs of the event. Donna Hart is chairing this most important endeavor which will keep our Birthright operating, with God's grace, for the foreseeable future.

Volunteer Spotlight ...

Meet Vicky Shoupe

Vicky and her husband Alan moved with their family to Fredericksburg three years ago. They have moved with the military a number of times, settling in places like Honolulu and Germany. While in Honolulu, Vicky volunteered with the Mary Jane Home for Unwed Mothers by helping with baby showers and collecting baby items. It was there that she witnessed women in great need at the most vulnerable time of their lives. We are blessed by her care and concern for women and their children here at Birthright.

Stories of Selfless Gifts

Every day at Birthright, we are blessed by the women who come through our door. Each one of them carries a personal story that is unique and God-given. Our volunteer, Betsy Flanigan shares these inspiring stories about such encounters with grace.

Jessica was already mother to a special needs 9-year-old son and two 'angel' babies who have been miscarried. Now being pregnant, she voiced her hope that this might be her 'rainbow' baby. She was 19 years old when she conceived her son. Doctors and friends had told her to have an abortion because he was diagnosed with severe handicaps. She refused to abort her child, whom she named Chance, aware of the 'chance' she was taking, since he would likely be severely handicapped. He now has a trach, a g-tube, and scoliosis, which requires surgery every six months to straighten his spine as he grows. Despite these limits, Jessica went on to describe him as the most loving, caring child anyone could ever meet. She has no regrets for choosing to give life to Chance and is excited to welcome another child. Motherhood isn't about 'taking chances' but about receiving the blessings of life. (Names reprinted with permission.)

A few years ago, just before Christmas, a man came to the office with his teenage son. They had filled their van with boxes and boxes of diapers, even having to make several trips. He told us that his family had a discussion about how much they had received and had decided that instead of buying gifts that year, they would use the money they saved to help others. Their teenage children knew a few young women who had been helped by Birthright, so they decided to make their donation to us. We are so grateful and touched by this family's selflessness.
